Housing Program, Counselors/Advocates refer clients to the housing program after completing a needs assessment and eligibility form. The client is assessed for eligibility by an advocate and placed on the domestic violence coordinated access ("DVCA") housing priority list. Based on housing eligibility and availability, clients on the DVCA waiting list are provided housing through our collaborative DVCA partners. Clients entering into the HAWC housing program are provided with a housing assessment by the housing advocate to assess the client's individual needs and barriers and to connect them to internal and external housing programs. Clients who enter HAWC's housing program will work with an assigned case manager while they participate in their program.

Food Assistance: Food is provided to clients at the residential campus and counseling and education center. Three meals a day and snacks are provided to adults and children at the residential campus. A small food pantry is provided to clients at the counseling and education campus. Additionally, clients are offered grocery gift cards as a supplement to the food pantry.

Transportation assistance is also provided to clients in emergencies when fleeing domestic violence or when sexual assault has occurred. HAWC works closely with the Greater Houston Transportation Company and its affiliated companies to provide transportation to clients. Additionally, clients may be transported by bus for longer trips when necessary to transport a client to a safe place. If needed, HAWC provides clients with bus passes to enable clients to work or other destinations. Clients are provided with career development assistance and when funding is available, clients
